

Native Forest Management Field Day

Thursday 7th April

*Presenters: Bill Schulke, Sean Ryan
Impacts of thinning on forest health, productivity, economic returns and grazing*

Poor environmental and productive condition

Highly productive forest with good ground cover

- The latest update on Legislation
- Current timber products and what they are worth
- Latest growth results from regrowth thinned 14 yrs ago
- Inspect 3 different thinning densities sites and compare 10 yrs growth data and the benefits to tree growth and grazing
- Inspect extensive thinning and long term timber production

Location: Jess property — Esk — 4 km west on Esk Hampton Rd
Follow the Field Day signs (See over for mudmap)

Time: 9.00am - 3.00pm

RSVP E: admin@pfsq.org.au

P: 5483 6535, 0428457322

